

A vibrant, isometric illustration of school supplies and a school bus. The central text reads "BACK TO SCHOOL" in orange and "BACK" in large yellow letters, with "DRIVE DRIVE" in white below it. The scene is filled with various school items like pencils, books, a calculator, a basketball, and a school bus.

Intended to ask for sponsorship support for the Family Day Back to School Drive that will be held on August 10, 2024.

Meet Us

CAMFOOT VETERAN FC is a registered and insured non-profit organization based in Austin, Texas. We are dedicated to promoting soccer, good sportsmanship, fostering relationships between players, friends, guests, sympathizers, and conducting charity works within the Austin community. Our team is committed to not only excelling in football but also making a positive impact on the community through our actions both on and off the field

Our Mission Statement

CAMFOOT VETERAN FC in our mission to bring brilliant minds from different backgrounds, races, cultures, religions and countries together through soccer so that, united, we can offer help to the less privileged in our community. As an organization we also embrace and celebrate diversity, equity, and inclusion. Your support as a sponsor will not only benefit our organization but also showcase your commitment to social responsibility and community engagement.

Event Portfolio

Event 1: Building Table and Chairs at Casa Marianella

Casa Marianella warmly embraces displaced immigrants, offering crucial shelter and support services aimed at fostering self-sufficiency. Volunteering with Casa Marianella proved to be an exceptionally meaningful experience for many of our members, who have directly benefited from the organization's vital services. This opportunity allowed them to engage firsthand with individuals facing significant challenges, fostering profound empathy and understanding across cultural, racial, and socioeconomic boundaries.

Event 2: Camfoot volunteer with Mobile Loaves & Fishes

Camfoot made a remarkable impact this year through their dedicated volunteer work with Mobile Loaves & Fishes, a respected Christian social outreach ministry in Austin, Texas, known for its transformative efforts in empowering homeless communities since 1998.

Event 3: Camfoot Family Day

Last year, Camfoot Family Day gathered over 300 parents and children for a day filled with relaxation and engaging activities, from games and entertainment to shared meals. This annual celebration serves as a joyful platform to honor the achievements of our youth in various facets of life—be it academic success, community service, or personal growth. It's a moment to recognize and applaud both individual accomplishments and collective contributions to our vibrant Camfoot family.
